WELCOME, VISITORS!

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, here’s what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, we sing without the accompaniment of mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We have a weekly observe the Lord’s Supper (cf. Acts 20:7) which consists of unleavened bread and fruit of the vine (Matt. 26:26-29). This memorial is designed for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins to partake (Acts 2:38, 42). There will also be an offering collected from our members (1 Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. Feel perfectly comfortable passing the collection plate down the row. You will also hear the preaching of a Bible-centered message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (1 Tim. 2:8). We think you will find our worship meaningful and refreshing as we strive to do it in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). We encourage you to observe carefully and stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you better and answer any questions you may have.

Of Hogs and Men

Once there was a small town on the edge of a large forest. In the forest lived a large herd of wild pigs. These hogs would ravage the villagers' crops, gardens, and yards. Finally the townsfolk had enough, so they formed a band of men to hunt the hogs. But they found that the wild pigs were smart and wily. So they called on a famous hunter to help them. When he arrived with his supplies and announced his plan of action, they were quite surprised. Here's what he did. First, he put out some corn in a clearing. After several days, he noticed the hogs had finally found the place and eaten all the corn. He then replaced the corn and, of course, the hogs came back. After a few more times of this, he put up fence posts around the corn. In a few days, he then added the wire. A few more days of this and he then added the gate. Finally one morning, while the pigs were greedily eating the corn, he snuck up and simply closed the gate. When the villagers complimented him on his brilliance, he shrugged his shoulders and said, "Those hogs were mine the day they ate their first mouthful of corn."

We need to be warned of Satan's devices (cf. 2 Cor. 2:11), and one of them is getting us accustomed to sinning. We may think when we sin that it doesn't seem harmful, or that we will not get caught, or that we can stop anytime – but what we may not realize is that while we habitually sin and justify it, Satan is building a fence around us. And if we get caught in the practice of sin long enough, he will even close the gate.

The Hebrew writer warned his readers (and all Christians) of the danger of falling into this trap.

* Heb. 3:13 says that sin is deceitful.

* Heb. 11:25 calls sin a passing pleasure.

* Heb. 12:1 warns that sin can easily ensnare us.

Don't get caught in Satan's trap. Repent and get out of that lifestyle of sin. Let Jesus free you from the bondage of sin. "Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed." (John 8:36)
