WELCOME, VISITORS!

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, here's what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, we sing without the accompaniment of mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We have a weekly observe the Lord's Supper (cf. Acts 20:7) which consists of unleavened bread and fruit of the vine (Matt. 26:26-29). This memorial is designed for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins to partake (Acts 2:38, 42). There will also be an offering collected from our members (1 Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. Feel perfectly comfortable passing the collection plate down the row. You will also hear the preaching of a Bible-centered message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (1 Tim. 2:8). We think you will find our worship meaningful and refreshing as we strive to do it in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). We encourage you to observe carefully and stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you better and answer any questions you may have.

Get It?

Heb. 10:24-25 is a great treatise on things we should get to doing as a church. Note from the text: “And let us consider one another¹ in order to stir up love² and good works³, not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together⁴, as is the manner of some, but exhorting one another⁵, and so much the more as you see the Day approaching⁶.”

- 1) Get involved in each other's lives.
- 2) Get along with one other and show appreciation.
- 3) Get to doing good deeds collectively.
- 4) Get together as often as possible.
- 5) Get concerned for others' souls.
- 6) Get going, knowing our time is limited.

- Edd Sterchi

If You Were Busy

If you were busy being kind,
Before you knew it, you would find
You'd soon forget to think 'tis true
That someone was unkind to you.

If you were busy being glad,
And cheering people who were sad
Although your heart might ache a bit,
You'd soon forget to notice it.

If you were busy being good,
And doing just the best you could,
You'd not have time to blame some man
Who's doing just the best he can.

If you were busy being true
To what you know you ought to do,
You'd be so busy you'd forget
The blunders of the folks you met.

If you were busy being right
You'd find yourself too busy, quite,
To criticize your neighbor long
Because he once was in the wrong.

O, the good that might be done -
The hearts of folks that might be won!
And negativity you'd bind.
If you were busy being kind.
