

REGULAR MEETINGS OF THE CHURCH

Sunday 10:00 am.....Bible Classes
 11:00 am.....Worship
 5:00 pm.....Worship
 Wed. 7:00 pm.....Bible Classes

WELCOME, VISITORS!

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, here’s what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, we sing without the accompaniment of mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We have a weekly observe the Lord’s Supper (cf. Acts 20:7) which consists of unleavened bread and fruit of the vine (Matt. 26:26-29). This memorial is designed for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins to partake (Acts 2:38, 42). There will also be an offering collected from our members (1 Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. Feel perfectly comfortable passing the collection plate down the row. You will also hear the preaching of a Bible-centered message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (1 Tim. 2:8). We think you will find our worship meaningful and refreshing as we strive to do it in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). We encourage you to observe carefully and stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you better and answer any questions you may have.

Do You Have Enough?

Make sure that you have:

- * Enough happiness to keep you sweet.
- * Enough trials to keep you strong.
- * Enough sorrow to keep you human.
- * Enough hope to keep you happy.
- * Enough failure to keep you humble.
- * Enough success to keep you eager.
- * Enough friends to give you comfort.
- * Enough good fortune to meet your needs.
- * Enough enthusiasm to make you look forward to tomorrow.
- * Enough determination to make each day better than the day before.

If you don't have enough of the preceding, maybe you should associate with the church more. Think about it.

We Need More Mollys in the Church

I like to walk. I take a walk in our neighborhood practically every evening. Now, let me tell you this about the way I walk: I walk fast and prefer to walk alone. It's just the way I am.

But there is a neighbor gal who will join me from time to time. Every time I see her, it always makes my evening better. Her name is Molly. She is always happy to see me and, to be honest, I am always thrilled to see her.

Even though I don't necessarily like others with me when I walk, I don't mind at all when Molly joins me. She always has a great attitude about things. And no matter how hot or cold it is, she never complains. Molly is one of the few who can keep up with my speedy walking pace. Also, she is a great listener. I truly enjoy having Molly join me on my walks.

Yes, Molly is a great female friend and I truly love being with her. And best of all, Julie doesn't mind her being along by my side! You see, Molly is our neighbor's dog.

On one of our walks, I came to the realization that it is her companionship that I relish. The way God made humans is that good companionship is craved and valued.

Companionship is something that is also vital for church success. Christians are brothers and sisters in Christ, and as such are to be a part of close-knit family. Companionship helps us to receive support, encouragement, and the blessings of team effort.

When Jesus sent out the seventy on special mission work, He sent them out "two by two" (Luke 10:1). Paul always had several companions on his missionary journeys (ex. Acts 13:13). God's people have always known the value of companionship.

Let us realize how vital companionship in the church is and let us all resolve to be better companions to our brethren, knowing that it truly makes a huge difference as we walk through life.

"Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor. For if they fall, one will lift up his companion." (Ecclesiastes 4:9)
