

REGULAR MEETINGS OF THE CHURCH

Sunday 10:00 am.....Bible Classes
 11:00 am.....Worship
 5:00 pm.....Worship
 Wed. 7:00 pm.....Bible Classes

WELCOME, VISITORS!

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, here's what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, we sing without the accompaniment of mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We have a weekly observe the Lord's Supper (cf. Acts 20:7) which consists of unleavened bread and fruit of the vine (Matt. 26:26-29). This memorial is designed for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins to partake (Acts 2:38, 42). There will also be an offering collected from our members (1 Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. Feel perfectly comfortable passing the collection plate down the row. You will also hear the preaching of a Bible-centered message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (1 Tim. 2:8). We think you will find our worship meaningful and refreshing as we strive to do it in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). We encourage you to observe carefully and stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you better and answer any questions you may have.

Edd Away - Edd will leave after morning services and will spend the next 10-12 days on the Appalachian Trail. Cell service will be spotty, but he should be able to check messages and email every couple of days or so.

Missed Birthday - Noah Reynolds celebrated his birthday last week (Sept. 13). We regret omitting it in last Sunday's bulletin.

Birthdays This Week (and Next)

- * Latisha Carmicle (Sept. 19)
- * Kaylee Reynolds (Sept. 22)
- * Steve Clark (Sept. 23)

Finding What They Looked For

Mr. Smith went to church services one Sunday morning. He heard the song leader miss a note, and he winced. He saw a teenager texting when the young man should have been bowing while a prayer was being led. He also saw a lady partake of the Lord's Supper in manner in which, to him, made it obvious she was not thinking of Jesus' sacrifice. He felt like the server was watching to see what he put in the offering plate, and it made him boil. He caught the preacher making several grammatical errors in the sermon. As he slipped through the back door during the closing hymn he muttered to himself, "What a pathetic worship service by a bunch of shameless hypocrites."

Mrs. Jones also went to church services one Sunday morning. As she sang with the church "How Great Thou Art," she was moved at the thought of the majesty of God. As she opened her heart, bowed her head, and concentrated while a prayer was being led, she was touched that she was a part of communicating with her Maker. As she partook of the Lord's Supper, she shed a tear thinking of Christ's sacrifice and the opportunity to commune with Him. As she put her money with the collection, she was filled with happiness for how much God had blessed her and hope of the good things the church would do with the portion she was giving back. As she listened to the sermon, she took note of the things she needed to learn and vowed to apply them to her life, knowing that God would bless her if she did so. She thought as she walked out to the doors to leave, "What a wonderful worship service. How could anyone come here and not feel the presence of God?"

Both went to the same church services on the same Sunday morning. Each found what they was looking for. What will you find at worship services this Sunday morning?

*"God is Spirit, and those who worship Him must worship in spirit and truth."
(John 4:24)*

*"For we are the circumcision, who worship God in the Spirit, rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh"
(Phil. 3:3)*
