Sunday 10:00 am.....Bible Classes
 11:00 am.....Worship
 5:00 pm.....Worship
 Wed. 7:00 pm.....Bible Classes

WELCOME, VISITORS!

We are so glad you are here. If this is your first time with us, here’s what to expect. We seek to worship according to the New Testament pattern. As a result, we sing without the accompaniment of mechanical musical instruments (Eph. 5:19; Col. 3:16). We have a weekly observe the Lord’s Supper (cf. Acts 20:7) which consists of unleavened bread and fruit of the vine (Matt. 26:26-29). This memorial is designed for those who have been baptized for the remission of sins to partake (Acts 2:38, 42). There will also be an offering collected from our members (1 Cor. 16:1-2). As our guest, you are not expected to make a donation. Feel perfectly comfortable passing the collection plate down the row. You will also hear the preaching of a Bible-centered message (Acts 20:7) and men leading the congregation in prayer (1 Tim. 2:8). We think you will find our worship meaningful and refreshing as we strive to do it in spirit and in truth (John 4:24). We encourage you to observe carefully and stay a while afterwards so that we can get to know you better and answer any questions you may have.

Christian, Christian, Burning Bright

Recently I read again one of my favorite poems. It is "The Tyger" by William Blake. You know the opening lines, I'm sure: "Tyger, Tyger, burning bright, in the forests of the night." I just love the words and flow of the poem.

As I read and reread it, I thought of how it could be adapted to the Christian who is to be "burning bright" for the Lord. So with apologies to Mr. Blake, may I offer this version:

Christian, Christian, burning bright
In the lost world that is night
The great immortal hand and eye
Can ever guide you safely by!

In what distant deeps or skies
Burns the warnings of your cries?
On what wings do you aspire
To take the hope of Christian fire?

And what action and what art
Shows the product of your heart?
And as thy life proceeds to shine,
Embers glow with works so fine.

Where's the fuel for fervent flame?
Where's the source? From whence it came?
The fire here comes from above...
The brilliance of God's purest love.

Christian, Christian, burning bright
In the lost world that is night
Take the message ever dear
Blazing hope to every ear!

Let's be shining lights for Christ – burning brightly always (Matt. 5:14-16)!
